Wilma was a dedicated and extraordinary mother, homemaker and farm wife. For many years she also drove a school bus for the Hillsboro School District, touching lives of her many passengers. Her gracious gift of hospitality was evident as her home was open & welcome to those who visited. So much so that it became the neighborhood gathering place on a near daily basis with numerous family and friends rotating through her doors. She was an excellent cook and housewife who always had the coffee pot on and cookies on hand. She was especially well known for her pies, homemade noodles and sugar cookies. Outdoors she helped work the farm and was an avid gardener. She especially enjoyed mushroom hunting and fishing. She was a member of the Montgomery County Farm Bureau and Home Extension as well as Woodside Ladies Aid.

In addition to her husband and parents, Mrs. Miles was preceded in death by her sister, Opal and two brothers, Everett and Jesse Evrley.
